

Gardens & Grace

Soul Sanctuary, Quiet Delight

MAY 27-31, 2007

KANUGA CONFERENCES • HENDERSONVILLE, NC

Whether you're planting your first seeds or creating an outdoor refuge for your home, church or wherever the need exists, you will find this week rewarding and fun.

OUR KEYNOTERS

- The Rev. Philip Roderick, Diocese of Oxford, England, founder of the Quiet Garden Movement
- Terry Hershey, Vashon, Wash., storyteller and landscape designer, frequently featured on the Hallmark channel
- The Rev. Barbara Crafton, Diocese of New York, author and founder of geraniumfarm.org
- Denise Inge, Cambridge, England, gardener and specialist on 17th-century poet and priest Thomas Traherne

WORKSHOP TOPICS INCLUDE

- Basic garden design
- Finding God in the garden
- Organic gardening
- Labyrinths in the garden
- Garden writing
- Meditation
- Body prayer
- Butterfly gardening
- A gardening project on Kanuga's campus (Bring your gloves!)
- And more!

Gardens large or small, wild or manicured, can be places for prayer, creativity and healing. This unique conference will feature inspirational workshops, teaching sessions and opportunities for sharing, celebrating, relaxation and restoration. Come and see how the garden grows!

www.kanuga.org

or call 828-692-9136

Quiet Garden at St. James, Hendersonville, N.C.