Make your great marriage even better.*

Marriage Enrichment Retreat Feb. 15-18, 2007 at Kanuga

Committed married couples can learn skills to enhance their lives together during this extended winter weekend at Kanuga.

Led by the Rev. Clay and Jane Turner of Spartanburg, S.C., certified marriage enrichment specialists, this retreat will enable couples to nurture their invaluable yet constantly changing relationships.

Couples will learn to:

- dream new dreams together
- improve communication
- process conflict effectively
- increase their sense of humor
- deepen their intimacy
- develop new insights
- and much more!

Married in 1961, the Turners have been involved in marriage enrichment since 1974. They currently serve on the training and certification committee for the national board of the Association for Couples in Marriage Enrichment.

Clay is a retired Episcopal priest. Jane has been a full-time mom and active community volunteer.
