St. Francis Chapel

Located near the High Rocks Trail, the woodland space welcomes worshipers with low wooden benches weathered by time and countless hours of prayer. Three footbridges cross a lively stream toward the altar, made from native stone. An historic bell stands at the ready to set the tone for contemplation.

Stations of the Cross (“Way of the Cross”)

Beginning at St. Francis Chapel and winding gently for a time alongside the forested Rufus Morgan trail before looping off to the left, Kanuga’s Stations of the Cross path invites you to experience an immersive woodland experience that imitates the practice of visiting the places of Jesus’ Passion in the Holy Land by early Christian pilgrims.

The Robin Geyer Camp Site at Long Rocks

With one of Kanuga’s most extraordinary long-range views of the Blue Ridge Mountains, this site’s elevation provides an inspiring location for personal reflection and prayer. Follow High Rocks Trail until you see the sign for Long Rocks moving off to the left (this trail is steep).

Lakeside Chapel

Stretching down the hill toward Kanuga Lake from the Lodge and surrounded by pines and hardwoods, here you may experience God and creation under the sky with breathtaking views of the lake and cross.

Serenity Garden

Hidden in a small, quiet grove that feels remote from main areas, this charming, shaded garden is located between Lakeside Chapel and Lakeside Guest Cottages.

Labyrinth

Journey to your own center and back out into the world with a spirit of renewal and purpose. The labyrinth is a walking meditation used to facilitate prayer, meditation, and spiritual transformation. You’ll find Kanuga’s labyrinth between the St. Paul’s – Colhoun Gymnasium and the lake. A full description and meditative guide exhibit are near the entrance.

Gehman Chapel

Located on the Bob Campbell Youth Campus on a knoll surrounded by woods, this sweet outdoor chapel provides a peaceful place for contemplation with views of Kanuga’s natural beauty from all sides. The unique metal cross provides a beautiful and unique focal point for worshippers to discover a new perspective.

Psalm 46:10

“Be still, and know that I am God!
I am exalted among the nations,
I am exalted in the earth.”
